SUBJECT: TFLE01: UPDATE ON EVACUEE PROCESSING IN TURKEY

REF: A) ANKARA 4252, B) ANKARA 4326

SENSITIVE BUT UNCLASSIFIED -- PLEASE PROTECT ACCORDINGLY

1. (SBU) SUMMARY: Of the 1,700 evacuees received in Turkey, approximately 700 remain on the Incirlik Air Base as of July 28, awaiting chartered aircraft. All three of the flights scheduled to depart July 28 were canceled. These repeated cancellations and delays are seriously undermining morale on the ground. Conoffs at Incirlik sent approximately fifty-five humanitarian parole requests to DHS for processing and recommended against parole in only four cases. DHS officers (2 from Frankfurt and 2 from Rome) are scheduled to arrive July 28 at circa 2100 hours to assist with any additional processing at Incirlik. Incirlik's base commander expects all evacuees awaiting DHS processing to be off base by August 2. End Summary.

2. (SBU) All three flights scheduled to depart Incirlik July 28 were canceled. Evacuees are growing weary of delays and cancellations, and their morale and patience is quickly deteriorating. Yesterday, thirty Amcits marched into our control room demanding to speak to "whoever was in charge of the operation" after receiving news of yet another flight cancellation.

3. (SBU) Evacuees to Turkey were typically well funded, and to date Conoffs have not had any loan requests. The one remaining medical case, involving evacuation of an Amcit with an oxygen tank, was resolved when said Amcit decided to purchase his own ticket with cash on a commercial carrier.

4. (SBU) Conoffs submitted fifty-five humanitarian parole requests to DHS, recommending against parole in only four cases. Thus far Conoffs have received two positive responses from DHS for onward travel from humanitarian requests and hope to have all pending cases resolved by COB in Washington July 28. DHS officers (2 from Frankfurt and 2 from Rome) are scheduled to arrive tonight at circa 2100 hours to assist with any additional processing at Incirlik.

5. (SBU) Incirlik base commander expects all evacuees awaiting DHS processing to be off base by August 2. We do not currently anticipate the need to house any evacuees at Incirlik beyond August 2ND.
